About the LGAQ Waste Forum

The recent announcement from the Environment Minister has provided the much-needed certainty and opportunity for the next ten years. What will this now mean for industry and local and State Government to work together to find innovative solutions to make Queensland a leader in the waste space?

Use the opportunity to connect with local and State Government, industry representatives and community leaders in waste management and resource recovery at the LGAQ Waste Forum from the 4th to 6th JULY 2022, at the Royal International Convention Centre in Brisbane. The 3-day program focusses on the future of waste management in Queensland, with workshops and debates on regional waste planning, organics management and product stewardship.

Become a Sponsor

Maximise your exposure in the waste and resource recovery industry, align your brand with the premier waste event in Queensland, and build brand affinity with valuable business contacts in order to further develop your business.

Key sponsorship benefits:

- Build brand awareness.
- Opportunity to promote products and services.
- Gain access to a diverse range of contacts through Local Government Councils.
- Align with the industry event that helps you increase your credibility in the industry.
